Immediate Graphic Design Internship: Artsposure the Raleigh Arts Festival Campaign Materials

Artsposure is a Raleigh non-profit organization that brings art experiences to the public in fun, fresh and unforgettable ways. Mottis has been working with the organization over the past year on rebranding, and we developed the First Night® Raleigh 2014 campaign. This spring, Mottis will manage the creative direction for the organization's spring festival campaign materials, but we need your help!

We're seeking a team of 2-3 talented and driven design interns to assist with the design and development of campaign materials for the spring festival under our agency's direction. Candidates must be highly self-disciplined and accountable to deadlines and deliverables to ensure that we meet the client's timeline.

This is a wonderful opportunity to receive experience working under the direction of an agency to promote a highly creative client and event.

Responsibilities include:

- Reviewing the project's creative brief before producing design materials
- Following creative direction and instructions provided on agency work orders
- Maintaining all mandatory design elements and art direction during material execution
- Coordination directly with agency Traffic Coordinator in regards to deadlines, questions, internal reviews and deliverables
- Managing one's own schedule to ensure all deliverables and deadlines are met according to the project timeline
- Work to be done remotely, but some time required traveling to Mottis headquarters in Sanford, N.C.

Required experience:

- At least Junior ranking at accredited university, pursuing minimum of BA or BFA degree in Graphic Design
- Knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite is required
- Understanding design principles: typography, layout, form and color
- Familiar with Mac platform
- Understanding production principles and how to produce a mechanical file
- Working knowledge of HTML platform is a plus
- Eager to listen and learn
- Good written and verbal communication skills

This internship opportunity is unpaid, but college credit may be available for participation. All applicants must submit a resume and samples from their design portfolio through a URL link or as an attachment.
